 an education have a job and just be human A story of fighting to belong in a world that wasn t built for all of us and of one woman s activism from the streets of Brooklyn and San Francisco to inside the halls of Washington Being Heumann recounts Judy Heumann s lifelong battle to achieve respect acceptance and inclusion in society Paralyzed from polio at eighteen months Judy s struggle for equality began early in life From fighting to attend grade school after being described as a fire hazard to later winning a lawsuit against the New York City school system for denying her a teacher's license because of her paralysis. Judy's actions set a precedent that fundamentally improved rights for disabled people. As a young woman, Judy rolled her wheelchair through the doors of the US Department of Health, Education and Welfare in San Francisco as a leader of the Section 504 Sit In, the longest takeover of a governmental building in US history. Working with a community of over 150 disabled activists and allies, Judy successfully pressured the Carter administration to implement protections for disabled people's rights, sparking a national movement and leading to the creation of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Candid intimate and irreverent, Judy Heumann's memoir about resistance to exclusion invites readers to imagine and make real a world in which we all belong. Nightfall Jake Halpern, Peter Kujawinski, 2015-09-22 The dark will bring your worst nightmares to light in this gripping and eerie survival story. On Marin's island, sunrise doesn't come every twenty-four hours; it comes every twenty-eight years. Now the sun is just a sliver of light on the horizon. The weather is turning cold, and the shadows are growing long. Because sunset triggers the tide to roll out hundreds of miles, the islanders are frantically preparing to sail south where they will wait out the long Night. Marin and her twin brother Kana help their anxious parents ready the house for departure. Locks must be taken off doors. Furniture must be arranged. Tables must be set. The rituals are puzzling, bizarre even, but none of the adults in town will discuss why it has to be done this way. Just as the ships are about to sail, a teenage boy goes missing. The twins' friend Line, Marin and Kana are the only ones who know the truth about where Line's gone, and the only way to rescue him is by doing it themselves. But Night is falling. Their island is changing. And it may already be too late.
